

DIPLOMATIC DISCOUNTS - WHO QUALIFIES?

A Diplomat or member of an international organisation representing their country abroad.

A Diplomatic Mission purchasing a vehicle for use as an official vehicle.

Confirmation of your status as an envoy of your country can be achieved using:

- Diplomatic passport from the Foreign Ministry with accreditation from the host country
- Official Passport from the UN or associated organizations
- Special identity document issued by the Foreign Ministry or special identity documents issued by the host country for members of international organisations

In addition if you are a member of one of the following organisations you may also qualify.

Internationally coordinated organisations

- North Atlantic Treaty Organisation (NATO)
- Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)
- European Space Agency (ESA)
- Western European Union (WEU)
- Council of Europe

Other international organisations

- European Organization for Nuclear Research (CERN)
- Interpol
- Organisation for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE)

UN main organisation specialist agencies and institutions, e.g.

- International Labour Organisation (ILO)
- United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO)
- International Telecommunication Union (ITU)
- International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD) International Development Association (IDA)
- International Monetary Fund (IMF)

European Commission

- European Parliament
- European Court.
- Their executive bodies, institutions e.g. European Central Bank (ECB), European Patent Organisation (EPO) and agencies e.g. European Medicines Agency (EMA), Europol